Evaluation: content

5.6 Please specify how you can use the gained knowledge in your work

In teaching disciplines for future educators of vocational training, to compare the educational systems of different countries

I will implement the communication results and experience in forming the syllabus

While forming the curriculum of the University

Currently, a very relevant issue for me is master's preparation specifically in Vocational Education (Design). Thank you for a lot of interesting information! I will definitely use it in my professional activity

Thanks to the information received, it is clear that there is room to grow, to improve teaching methods, and to use the examples provided in my activity

In discussions on the development and promotion of vocational education

It would be interesting to conduct a comparative analysis of the education systems (vocational) here and in Germany

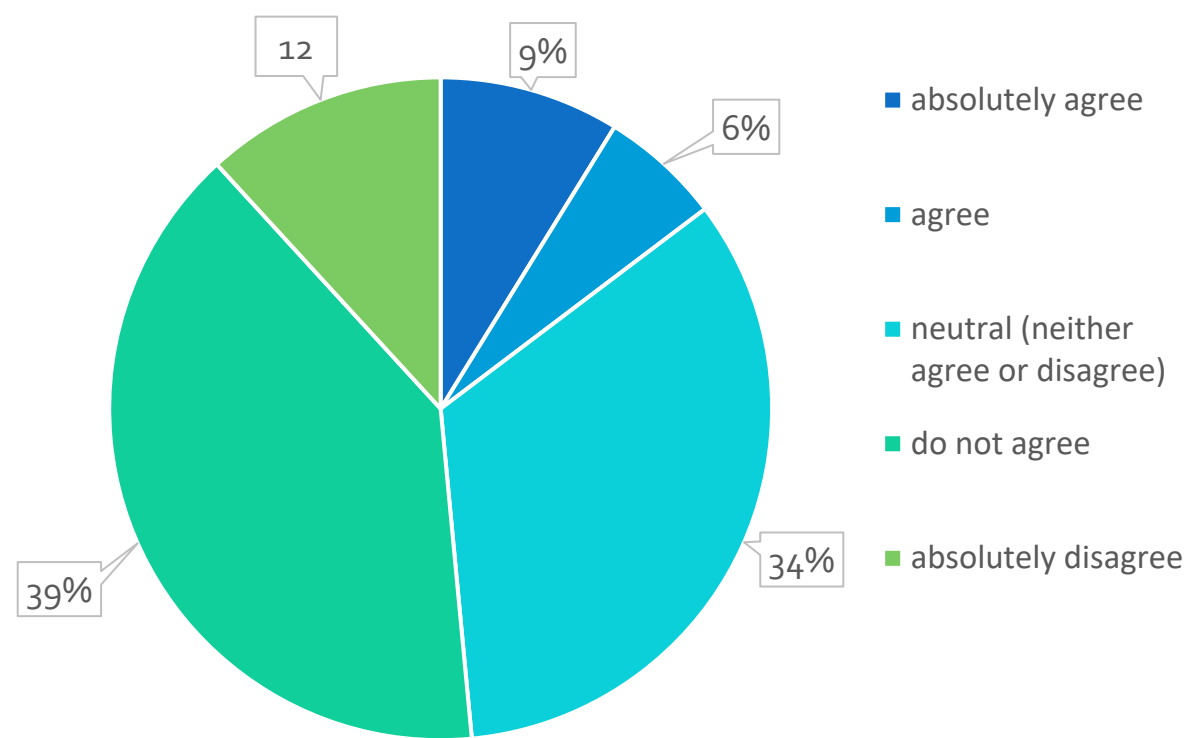

During academic mobility

In designing educational disciplines and preparing for classes

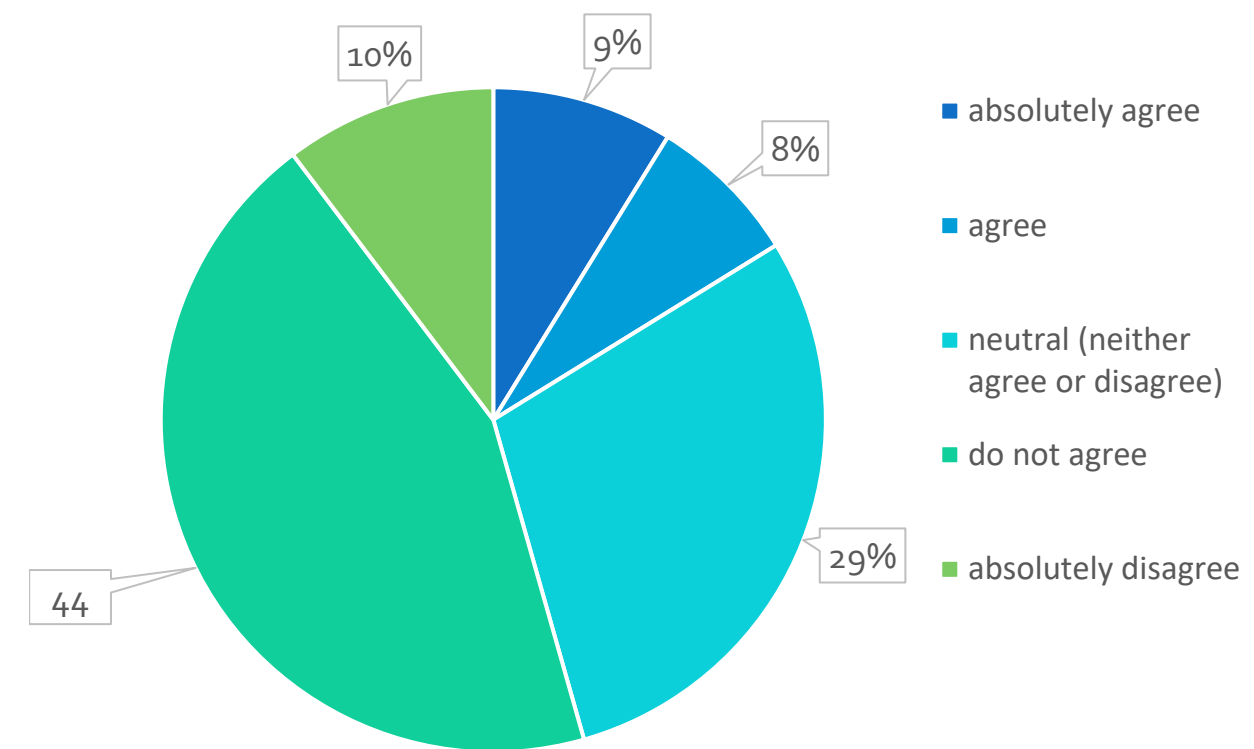

Currently, a very relevant issue for me is master's training in Professional Education (Design). So thank you very much for a lot of interesting information! I will definitely use it in my professional activities.
